

EPHESIANS
CHAPTER FIVE

1. Who deserves imitation?
2. How ought Christians imitate God?
3. Whose example should we follow regarding love?
4. Why should certain behaviors “not even be named among you?”
5. Which behaviors are “not fitting?”
6. What is the appropriate alternative to the aforementioned unfitting actions?
7. What does covetousness amount to?
8. What did Paul expect the Ephesians to already be aware of?
9. What had the Ephesians been and what did they become?
10. What should “children of light” be doing?
11. How are the “unfruitful works of darkness” to be treated?
12. Which passage is quoted in verse fourteen?
13. Whose responsibility is it to wake up and rise from death?

14. How must Christians “walk?”
15. Why must Christians so walk?
16. What is the foremost characteristic of the wise?
17. What is the problem with being drunk?
18. How should one be “filled” instead of with wine?
19. How does one submit to the command to “be filled with the Spirit?”
20. Describe the music Christians are to make.
21. Whom should this music be directed toward?
22. How should prayer be addressed?
23. Besides song and prayer, how does one show himself to be filled with the Spirit?
24. Whom should wives submit to?
25. How should they submit and why?
26. Whose Savior is Jesus?
27. How should men love their wives?
28. Why did Christ give Himself for the church?

29. How was the church cleansed?
30. What kind of church does Jesus intend to have?
31. Why did Paul bring up marriage in this context?