

THE SENSE OF HELL

I. THE SENSE OF SMELL

A. Psalm 11:6

Brimstone awaits the damned.

B. Revelation 21:8

Brimstone is sulfur, the constant odor of rotten eggs.

II. THE SENSE OF SOUND

A. Matthew 13:41-42

Wailing is the sound that will fill hell.

B. Luke 13:27-28

Doom sounds like unstoppable crying.

III. THE SENSE OF SIGHT

A. Matthew 18:9

Many may enter hell with two eyes, but it will do them no good.

B. 2nd Peter 2:4-17; 1st John 1:5

There isn't much to see because hell is a place of deep darkness. That is the case because God will not be there.

C. Luke 16:23, 26; (13:27-28)

What can be seen, however, are those who dwell in comfort, far away from the sinful departed.

IV. THE SENSE OF TOUCH

A. Matthew 22:13

It will feel like rope-burn around the wrists and ankles.

B. Luke 16:24; 2nd Thessalonians 1:6-8

Flaming fire will always scorch, but never consume, those who occupy hell.

C. Mark 9:47-48

Undying worms will be there, probably nibbling away at the souls of the damned.

V. THE SENSE OF TASTE

A. Luke 6:25

Those in hell will crave fulfillment, but be left permanently empty.

B. John 6:35-36

The Lord would have satisfied them if they had truly desired.

VI. THE SENSE OF MEMORY

A. Luke 16:25

In torment, they will call to mind how they wasted their years on earth.

B. Hebrews 8:12

Meanwhile, God will forget the sins of the saved.

VII. THE SENSE OF ISOLATION

A. Matthew 13:47-50

Hell means separation from good people.

B. 2nd Thessalonians 1:9-10

Most of all, it is separation from God Himself.
